TRADE RUSH SENDS SUGAR UP. Plan Calls for Building New Piers

Congestion on Railroads Contrib ntes to Advance. An estimated saving of $500,000 in the cost of the new subways has been accomplished by the Public Service Com-

The wholesale price of refined sugar advanced 10 points yesterday to 5.35 cents a pound, following a rise in raw sugars to 4.39 cents duty paid basis. The sudden appreciation in the value of raw sugar is laid in part to the present prosperity of the United States, which has resulted in glutting the rall-road yards with freight and made prompt sugars hard to secure.

accomplished by the Public Service Commission and the New York Dock Company, according to a statement from the commission. The agreement they have reached also means the expenditure of about $1,250,000 by the dock company for the improvement of the Brooklyn waterfront between Fulton street and Atlantic avenue.

Short piers are to be replaced by five new ones from 640 to 750 feet long. Frank C. Lowry, sales manager of the ederal Sugar Refining Company. in mmenting on the situation said:

new ones from 640 to 750 feet long, much wider than those now in use and accommodating much larger vessels. Three of the new piers will be built over prompt sugars hard to secure.

Federal Sugar commenting on the situation said:

"Owing to the congestion in the harbor it is taking an unusually long time to get delivery of sugar from store and those who sold for delivery now or early in November and who hoped to ship in October are finding it difficult on account of the scarcity of freights to get the sugar off by the middle of next month. This combination of circumstances has left refiners, who were running with light stocks, without sufficient sugar, and as a result there has been a keen demand for any sugar that could keen demand for any sugar that could sugar yessels.

Three of the new plers will be built over the existing subway tunnel in Joralemon street and the two new subway tunnels in Montague and Clark streets.

In trying to obtain rights for the new tunnel from Old slip to Clark street the commission found that the New York pook Company, which has large waterfront interests in Brooklyn, estimated the damage to its property and business at $600,000. At the same time the commission was planning to spend $300,000 in protecting the new subway tunnels in Montague and Clark streets.

"Naturally at this season there is not much tonnage from Cuba and boats have been diverted to other channels. The unexpected demand for ships has raised freights from 15 cents to 22 cents."
